Invitation to the EZA Youth Conference in Germany

The EZA Platform for Young Workers (PYW) and the Nell-Breuning-Haus invite you to the 8th Youth Conference from 18th of September 2019 (arrivals day) until 20th of September 2018 (departure in the afternoon). This years' conference will focus on 'Recipes for fighting Labour Market Insecurities'.

We are looking forward to a great youth conference with you!

Each EZA member organisation is invited to send two youth representatives of their organisation, aged between 18 and 36 years old. This conference is intended for young representatives which are working on youth issues for their organisation. The conference will take place in English.

The travel costs incurred will be reimbursed on request up to an amount of 350.00 €. A shuttle service is organised from Cologne or Düsseldorf airport.

Since places are limited, allocation of conference places will take place on a first come. Deadline for subscribing is on the 6th of September 2019.
